pretty little lies

Par mymy

Album : petunia

I miss the coldness in your eyes

I miss all your little threats

I miss the way you talked to me

I miss your yell when you're upset

And I cannot lie

All I really do is lie

What do you miss about me?

Do you miss my ugly cries

Tell me pretty little lies

You wont stab me cause you're shy

Keep me close, I said you're mine

(Forgive you for saying that I'm crazy)

Just tell me pretty little lies

Just tell me pretty little lies

Just tell me pretty little lies

Just tell me pretty little lies

Just tell me pretty little lies

I miss the way you touched me, the way you touched me every night

I miss the way you kissed me, with the same mouth that you told me lies

I wish I wasn't lonely, I wouldn't have to miss you

I hate the choices that I make

I always knew you were a mistake

Just tell me pretty little lies

Just tell me pretty little lies

Just tell me pretty little lies

Just tell me pretty little lies

Oh oh oh

I miss the coldness in your eyes

I can tell when you lie

But the way you looked at me

Caught me by surprise

Don't you miss the spark that we had going on?

I miss the way you touched me, the way you touched me every night

I miss the way you kissed me, with the same mouth that you told me lies

I wish I wasn't lonely, I wouldn't have to miss you

I hate the choices that I make

I always knew you were a mistake

Just tell me pretty little lies

I miss the coldness in your eyes

(Just tell me pretty little lies)

I miss all your little threats

(Just tell me pretty little lies)

I miss the way you talked to me

(Just tell me pretty little lies)

I miss your yell when you're upset

(Just tell me pretty little lies)
