Diamonds (Minecraft Parody)

Par NateWantsToBattle

Album : Diamonds (Minecraft Parody)

Some nights I stay up

Mining for some diamonds

Some nights I find none at all

And some nights I try my best to build a castle

Most nights those creepers blow it up

But I still stay up

I still see those ghasts

No I'm still not sure

What I mine for, oh

What do I mine for?

What do I mine for?

Most nights

I'm not sure

Anymore

Well this is it boys

Grab your torch

Don't forget to enchant your swords

Now how did we get so lost already?

The zombie pigs put up such a fight

Skeletons come on out at night

I try my best to make lots of light

Here they come again to shoot me down

That's alright

There's not monsters near my bed tonight

Nobody is gonna steal all of my diamonds

Diamonds

Diamonds

Well most nights I wish that

The nights would end

'Cause I could use some sun for a change

And most nights I'm scared

I'll see the enderman

He'll find out where I sleep

And then he'll murder me

But I still stay up

I still see those ghosts

No I'm still not sure

What I mine for, oh

What do I mine for?

What do I mine for?

Most nights

I'm not sure

Anymore
