All on Red

Par Nick Lutsko

Album : Ends

Slow down, baby

I'm admiring the architecture

We'd never leave if it were up to me

I've been barking up your tree

Since you were seventeen

You make it easy to forget how long

And if I got a coin in my pocket

I'm gonna bet on red

I'm leaving the keys in the cockpit

In case you're ready to jet

Hold tight, honey

I just want a minute with you

Have you noticed all our dreams came true?

Squint and you might catch them in the rearview

But we keep on pushing on

And if I got a coin in my pocket

I'm gonna bet on red

I'm leaving the keys in the cockpit

In case you're ready to jet

I knew since the moment you walked in

I would bet it all on red

I knew since the moment you walked in

I would bet it all on red

Rewind, never mind

This is the good old days

We'll look back here from another place

And wonder how we cut through

Such a thick malaise

When it was never gone all along

If I had a point, then I lost it

It's better left unsaid

I'm watching the wheel as I tailspin

But I'm not breaking a sweat

I knew since the moment you walked in

I would bet it all on red

I knew since the moment you walked in

I would bet it all on red

And I ain't lost yet
