07 And All That Could Have Bee

Par Nine Inch Nails

Album : AndAllThatCouldHaveBeen, Still

Breeze still carryin' the sound

Maybe I'll disappear

Tracks will fade in the snow

You won't find me here

Ice is starting to form

Ending what had begun

I am locked in my head

With what I've done

I know you tried to rescue me

Didn't let anyone get in

Left with a trace of all that was

And all that could've been

Please take this

And run far away

Far away from me

I am tainted

The two of us

Were never meant to be

All these pieces

And promises and left-behinds

If only I could see

In my nothing

You meant everything

Everything to me

Time

Fading

Everything

And all that

Could've been

Could've been

Please take this

And run far away

Far as you can see

I am tainted

And happiness and peace of mind

Were never meant for me

All these pieces

And promises and left-behinds

If only I could see

In my nothing

You meant everything

Everything to me
