Album : Divine Vision Torn Apart

A new day

Nothing is safe

I wake up

I can't focus

I give up

What the fuck is my purpose?

Is this the day to take it all away?

Give it up, give it up, give it up, give it up

Taking away everything

Give it up, give it up, give it up, give it up

Taking away everything

Give it up, give it up, give it up, give it up

Taking away everything

Give it up, give it up, give it up, give it up

Taking away everything

A new day

Nothing is safe

I wake up

I can't focus

I give up

What the fuck is my purpose?

Is this the day to take it all away?

Give it up, give it up, give it up, give it up

Taking away everything

Give it up, give it up, give it up, give it up

Taking away everything

Give it up, give it up, give it up, give it up

Taking away everything

Give it up, give it up, give it up, give it up

Taking away everything

Taking away everything

I want to be the one to give up

Out of luck

I don't give a fuck

I've had enough with this life

What the fuck got me stuck in this mess?

I want to be the one to give up

Out of luck

I don't give a fuck

I've had enough with this life

What the fuck got me stuck in this mess?

I wake up, can't focus, can't breathe

Wake up, can't focus, can't breathe

Give it up, give it up, give it up, give it up

Taking away everything

Give it up, give it up, give it up, give it up

Taking away everything

Give it up, give it up, give it up, give it up

Taking away everything

Give it up, give it up, give it up, give it up

Taking away everything

Would you watch me die?

A new day
