Member when we used to go down to the creek?

And used to dip your head in the water?

Everybody thought you had it in you, you know

Superlogical this, superlogical that

I detect your dialect by the way you rapp!

I elect myself President MC

My career so intelligent, unique physique

Doin mathematics and I'm not democratci

No static, topic, I'm Asiatic

See, I'm Unique, never... blarhalal...

This one here's for my people, my people

Enter the 36 chambers, the sequel

Part two, for me and the cipher troop

With the Teflon lyrics that you can't get through

With the twenty-two automatic rap you pack, what?

You ain't hittin with that wack shit you kickin

Straight from the beginning, of the game

All the way to the ninth inning, I bring the pain

Dark like the midnight train on the track by the RZA

Diesel like Arnold Schwarzanegger

OI Dirty Bastard

The hardware, choose the hardware

Ask you a question, test the Ason

Extra extra, read the drama and thennn another one

Which you intrigue, do your rap fatigue in the...
