If You're Hearing This

Par Parson James

Album : Parson James

We all wanna believe

Wanna believe in something

'Cause if we believe in nothing

Then what do we have? What do we have?

We all wanna be loved

All wanna love somebody

'Cause if we ain't got nobody

Then what do we have? What do we have?

If you're hearing this, I'm at King and 5th

Eight to ten I'll sit at this table for two

In a Dodgers cap, drinking coffee black

Wondering where you're at

I'll be waiting, be waiting for you

(For you, for you, for you)

I've been waiting, been waiting for you

(For you, for you, for you, for you)

We all wanna believe

Wanna believe in something

'Cause if we believe in nothing

Then what do we have? What do we have?

We all wanna be loved

I wanna love somebody

'Cause if we ain't got nobody

Then what do we have? What do we have?

If you're hearing this, know I'm listening

I'm still wandering down these lost avenues

But I know one day

Clear blue skies are gray

I'll walk in and you'll say

"I've been waiting, been waiting for you"(You, you)

I've been waiting, been waiting for you

(For you, for you, for you, for you)

If you're hearing this, I'm at King and 5th

Eight to ten I'll sit at this table for two

But I know one day

Clear blue skies are gray

I'll walk in and you'll say

"I've been waiting, been waiting for you"

(For you, for you, for you, for you)

I've been waiting, been waiting for you

(Woah)

(For you, for you, for you)

I've been waiting, been waiting for you

(For you, for you)
