Sliding out of reverse into drive, this

Wheel will be turning right, then straight

Off in the sunset she'll ride

She can remember a time denied

Stood by the side of the road, spilled like wine now

She's out on her own and line high

There's no leaving here

Ask, I'm an ear

She's disappeared

They said that timing was everything

Made him want to be everywhere

There's a lot to be said for nowhere

There's no leaving here

Ask, I'm an ear

He's disappeared

There's no leaving here

Ask, I'm an ear

Fuck it, we're disappeared
