State of Love & Trust

Par Pearl Jam

Album : Rearviewmirror

State of love and trust as I busted down the pretext

Sin still plays and a-preaches, but to half an empty court, uh-huh

And the signs are passin', grip the wheel, cannot read it

Sacrifice receiving the smell that's on my hands, hands, yeah

And I listen for the voice inside my head

Nothin', I'll do this one myself

Lay her down as priest does, should the Lord be a-countin'

Will be in my honor, make it pain-, painfully quick, uh-huh

Promises are whispered in the age of darkness

Want to be enlightened like I want to be told the end, yeah, yeah

And the barrel shakes aimed, oh, directly at my head

Oh, help me, help me from myself

And I listen from both sides of a friend

Oh, nothin', I'll do this one myself

And I listen for the voice inside my head

Oh, nothin', I'll do this one myself

And the barrel waits, trigger shakes, aimed right at my head

Oh, help me, help me from myself

State of love and trust, in a

State of love and trust, in a

State of love and trust, in a

State of love and

State of love and trust, in a

State of love and trust, in a

State of love and trust, in a

State of love and trust
