A Life Beyond The Dream

Par Phish

Album : 2025-07-13: North Charleston Coliseum, North Charleston, SC

When we were talking

I didn't need to hide

Black stallions through the night

On a perfect ride

I watched you open wide

You looked into me

I had to turn away

I didn't wanna leave

Now I'm letting it all roll by

I can see, I can see

A life beyond the dream

I'm watching it all roll by

I can see, I can see

A life beyond the dream

Don't give up hope

Don't give up hope

Keep dreaming

Keep on dreaming

Don't give up hope

Don't give up hope

We share these moments

'Til they melt away

To foggy memories

Of a distant day

A curtain is blowing

In an open door

Two souls can breath as one

I wanted more

Now I'm letting it all roll by

I can see, I can see

A life beyond the dream

I'm watching it all roll by

I can see, I can see

A life beyond the dream

Don't give up hope

Don't give up hope

Keep dreaming

Keep on dreaming

Don't give up hope

Don't give up hope

Now I'm letting it all roll by

I can see, I can see

A life beyond the dream

I'm watching it all roll by

I can see, I can see

A life beyond the dream

Don't give up hope

Don't give up hope

Keep dreaming

Keep dreaming

Don't give up hope

Don't give up hope

Keep dreaming

Keep dreaming

Keep dreaming
