No More Fear

Par Pink Cream 69

Album : Hard-Rock Attack vol.30

Sometimes those pretty dreams can keep the soul alive

You will find your way

There are no borders to the things that you aspire

If you don't deny then you'll defy

No more heinous goodbyes

No more mountains to climb

No confusion, disillusion

No more fear in your eyes

There are no reasons for the things that you dismay

And no time for shame, gotta take the pain

A lack of certainty can only lead to pain

If you let the lies be your demise

No more heinous goodbyes

No more mountains to climb

No confusion, disillusion

No more fear in your eyes

In your darkness will be light

It's a power you possess

Another wrong, another right

Like the spirit you will fly

Walk away in the face of danger

Those trivial cries will not satisfy

No more heinous goodbyes

No more mountains to climb

No confusion, disillusion

No more fear in your eyes

No more heinous goodbyes

No more mountains to climb

No confusion, disillusion

No more fear in your eyes

Like the spirit you will fly

No more fear in your eyes

You will find your way

It's a power you possess
