Just For Me & You

Par POCO

Album : The Very Best Of POCO

Mmm, wish that I could come with the mornin' sun

Shinin' through your window

I could be the one to open up your day

Ooh, words can't begin to say

Feelings that are hidden in

In such a special way

And they're just for me and you

Night time comes searchin' blindly

Been needin' some love and I find me

Followin' my heart back to you

Mmm, how it reminds me that I need no other lover

This feelin' is like no other

And though I can't be with you now

Let this song be another

That's just for me and you

So let my heart go on a-singin'

Yeah, let my song go on a-bringin'

To you lovin' that you know is

In my heart and clingin' to days that passed on by

Need we stop, though, to wonder why?

You know I love you, baby

And the tears in my eyes

Are just for me and you

Yes, they are
