Gravity Eyelids

Par Porcupine Tree

Album : In Absentia CD1 FLAC

Open your eyes now

Hear me out before I lose my mind

I've been waiting for hours

Let the salt flow, feel my coil unwind

Give me a smile, please

Count the calm and watch my breathing slow

Winding me up tease

Get inside my head and make it show

Oh, your gravity eyelids

Gravity eyelids come down

Oh, your gravity eyelids

Gravity eyelids come down

Touching your oil skin

Slipping hands down past your waist to find

I've been waiting for hours

Let the salt flow, feel my coil unwind

Go to the edge, swim

Brown the eyes that sleep has rendered blind

Oh, your gravity eyelids (come, love so young, with your) (here's a will that will)

Gravity eyelids come down (gold arms, so I wake her) (glow in the dark)

Oh, your gravity eyelids (come, love so young, with your) (here's a will that will)

Gravity eyelids come down (gold arms, so I wake her) (glow in the dark)

(Come, love so young, with your) (here's a will that will)

(Gold arms, so I wake her) (glow in the dark)

(Come, love so young, with your) (here's a will)

Oh, your gravity eyelids (come, love so young, with your) (here's a will that will)

Gravity eyelids come down (gold arms, so I wake her) (glow in the dark)

Oh, your gravity eyelids (come, love so young, with your) (here's a will that will)

Gravity eyelids come down (gold arms, so I wake her) (glow in the dark)
