The Cold Hard Facts Of Life

Par Porter Wagoner

Album : The Cold Hard Facts Of Life

I got back in town a day before I'd planned to

I smiled and said, "I'll sure surprise my wife"

I don't think I'll phone, I'll just head on home

'Cause I didn't know the cold hard facts of life

I passed a little wine store on the corner

I pictured pink champagne by candlelight

I stopped the car right then, got out and hurried in

My mind not on the cold hard facts of life

A stranger stood there laughing by the counter

He said, "I'll take two bottles of your best"

Her husband's out of town and there's a party

He winked, as if to say, "You know the rest"

I left the store two steps behind the stranger

From there to my house, his car stayed in sight

But it wasn't 'til he turned into my drive that I learned

I was witnessing the cold hard facts of life

Oh, I drove around the block 'til I was dizzy

Each time the noise came louder from within

And then I saw a bottle there beside me

And I drank a fifth of courage and walked in

Lord, you should've seen their frantic faces

They screamed and cried, "Please put away that knife"

I guess I'll go to hell or I'll rot here in this cell

But who taught who the cold hard facts of life?

Who taught who the cold hard facts of life?
