Lonesome Moon

Par Pr?ta V?tra & Alexander Petrov

Album : Gads Bez Kalend?ra

I drew a line 'cause I've been here too many times

So typical, I'm crying out my wounded soul

(Can you hear, can you feel my voice?) It's so cold

I'm breathing loneliness tonight

Can't get enough

I'm so blind but still trying to get you

My lonesome moon, where are you?

Now that you're gone, I'm going crazy looking for you

My lonesome moon, where are you?

I'm all alone in my room, now that you are gone

Now that you are gone

Flashing lights, my head is spinning on and on

I close my eyes and wake up in a dream

(Can you hear, can you feel my voice?) What I've done, can't be taken back no more

I'm left behind

I'm too numb, now that I've come down

My lonesome moon, where are you?

Now that you're gone, I'm going crazy looking for you

My lonesome moon, where are you?

I'm all alone in my room, now that you are gone

Now that you are gone

Now that you are gone

Now that you are gone
