Thunder

Par Prince

Album : Diamonds And Pearls

Thunder

All through the night

Promise to see Jesus in the morning light

Take my hand, it'll be alright

Come on save your soul tonight

Wooo, Thunder

Yeah-yeah-yeah, yeah-yeah-yeah

Love: Nobody know just how it was born

Love: First came to me with the radio on

Jumped up in my body with an attitude

Kissed me on the mouth and said, "Your leader take me to"

'Twas like Thunder

All through the night

Promise to see Jesus in the morning light

Love said, "Take my hand, it'll be alright"

Come on save your soul tonight

Love's kiss was running all through my veins
The bed started shaking, I don't know who to blame
Me or this flower right in front of my eyes
Is this my sweet savior or the devil in disguise

'Twas like Thunder

All through the night (all through)

Promise to see Jesus in the morning light

Love said, "Take my hand, it'll be alright"

Come on save your soul tonight

Thunder, yeah-yeah

Like rain falling on a window pane

Tears came to my eyes when I asked her name

Made me holler when it finally came

Said, "Only the children born of me will remain"

'Twas like Thunder (ooh)

All through the night (ooh-ooh)

Promise to see Jesus in the morning light

Love said, "Take my hand, it'll be alright"

Come on save your soul tonight

Thunder

It will be all right (all right)

(It was truly like thunder)

Don't do it like that, do it like this

Ooh ooh (thunder) ooh ooh (thunder) ooh ooh

Thunder

Thunder

Thunder

(It was truly truly like)

Thunder

All through the night

Promise to see Jesus in the morning light (will be alright)

Take my hand, it'll be alright

Come on save your soul tonight

Wooo, Thunder

Thunder, Thunder

Yeah yeah yeah

Thunder

Wooo, Thunder

Thunder

Wooo, Thunder

Thunder

Wooo, Thunder

Thunder

Wooo, Thunder

Thunder

Thunder
