Nevermore

Par Rage

Album : The Missing Link [Dr.Bones Lethal Rec., LB15C1994, Austria]

Her mother told her everyday: "Never lose control

Whatever then may come your way, a good girl takes it all."

And all the years she held her peace and followed every rule

But then depression dried her heart

And now she's screaming out

Nevermore - never we'll forget

Nevermore - one day you'll regret

He used to be a follower

And did what he was told

Whatever they squeezed out of him

A good man bears it all.

But one day he was in their way

Did not fit in their plan

They tried to kick him from the boat

And now he's screaming out

Nevermore - never we'll forget

Nevermore - one day you'll regret

Never we'll forget, no!

Nevermore - never evermore...
