Midnight (2024 Remaster)

Par Ray Charles

Album : Modern Sounds In Country And Western Music, Vols 1 & 2

Midnight I've spent another lonely day thinking of you

Midnight tomorrow is on its way empty and blue

Still I'm lonely so lonely at midnight for you

Midnight oh what a lonely time to weep I ought to know

Midnight I should have been fast asleep hours ago

Still I'm crying, crying cause I miss you so

Midnight I lie in bed and stare at nothing at all

Wondering wondering why you don't care wishing you'd call

Tears keep flowing like drops from a waterfall

Midnight I've spent another lonely day thinking of you

Midnight tomorrow is on its way empty and blue

Still I'm lonely so lonely at midnight for you

Still I'm lonely so lonely at midnight for you
