Seventeen aint so sweet

Par Red Jumpsuit Apparatus

Album : Don't You Fake It (Deluxe Edition)

Well, she never was the best

Yeah, at following the trends

Stayed one step above the rest

And even though it seemed like the world was crashin' on her

Didn't let it hold her down, even hold her back, oh no

Don't worry you'll show them

There's a fire in your eyes

And I hope you'll let it burn

There's a scream in your voice

And I hope you will be heard

There's a fire in your eyes

And I hope you'll let it burn until you're heard

You're heard

Seventeen is just a test

Yeah, and I would recommend

That you live with no regrets

And even if it seems like the world is crashin' on you

You shouldn't let it hold you down, shouldn't hold you back, oh no, woah

Don't worry you'll show them

There's a fire in your eyes

And I hope you'll let it burn

There's a scream in your voice

And I hope you will be heard

There's a fire in your eyes

And I hope you'll let it burn until you're heard

You're heard

Relax girl, turn down the lights

No-one can see you shining

Relax girl, it'll be alright

No-one can stop you if you tried

Point of rhythm is to follow it in time

To listen to the beating in your mind

Remember if you will seek then you shall find, woah oh

There's a fire in your eyes

And I hope you'll let it burn

There's a scream in your voice

And I hope you will be heard

There's a fire in your eyes

And I hope you'll let it burn until you're heard

You're heard

There's a fire in your eyes

And I hope you'll let it burn

There's a scream in your voice

And I hope you will be heard

There's a fire in your eyes

And I hope you'll let it burn until you're heard

Until you're heard

Until you're heard
