By Now

Par Richard Shindell

Album : Sparrows Point

Window open wide

Blowing through the north

No radar gun in sight

Moon shines on the asphalt

Two eyes in the dark

Young doe in the high-beams

She don't stand a chance

If she ain't already got there by now

By now, by now, by now

Is that you MaryAnn

I almost drove right by you

Can I give you a hand

Is there somewhere I can take you

The road is dark and cold

No place for a young girl

Shouldn't you be at home

Your Mama's probably missed you by now

By now, by now, by now

Put your bags in back

Don't bother with the seat belt

Take a cigarette

What station do you like

How far do you go?

What time are you expected

Did you leave a note

Telling where you might be by now

By now, by now, by now

Window open wide

Blowing through the north woods

No radar gun in sight

Moon shines on the asphalt

Two eyes in the dark

Young doe in the high-beams

She don't stand a chance

If she ain't already got there by now

By now, by now, by now
