Right Now

Par Rozzen

Album : Right Now

I love the look on your face when you're chasin' my body, mm

I'm jumpin' in too deep, my fingers crossed that you got me, oh, yeah

Every fuckin' second that we throw away

Girl, I really wanna be your last mistake

Can't fight the night now

Oh, can't fight the night now

I need you right now

Oh, I need you right now

I need you right now

Oh, I need you right now

Right now, oh

Can't fight the night now

Oh, can't fight the night now

I need you right now

Oh, I need you right now

Can't fight the night now

Oh, can't fight the night now

Playin' with regret, but tonight I feel fine

I feel fine, I feel fine

Tonight, I feel fine

I feel fine, I feel fine

Tonight, I feel fine

I think there's too many ways for you to mess with my mind, mm

I think these rose-colored shades turn

All your red flags white, oh, yeah, yeah

Every fuckin' second that we throw away

Girl, I really wanna be your last mistake

Can't fight the night now

Oh, can't fight the night now

I need you right now

Oh, I need you right now

I need you right now

Oh, I need you right now

Right now, oh

Can't fight the night now

Oh, can't fight the night now

I need you right now

Oh, I need you right now

Can't fight the night now

Oh, can't fight the night now

Playin' with regret, but tonight I feel fine

I feel fine, I feel fine

Tonight, I feel fine

I feel fine, I feel fine

Tonight, I feel fine
