Daylight

Par RÜFÜS DU SOL

Album : BloomBloom

Daylight only comes at noon

Falling in the afternoon

I'm always chasing you

It's true, it's true, it's true

Daylight only comes at two

I guess that I'm addicted to you

Sunshine breaks for you

(I know, I know, I know, I know, I know, I know)

I know, I know, I know, I know, I know, I know

I know, I know, I know, I know, I know, I know)

If you're telling me what I'm telling you

Then you gotta take me home

There's part of me, and a part of you

That could never leave it alone

(I know, I know, I know, I know, I know, I know

I know, I know, I know, I know, I know, I know

I know, I know, I know, I know, I know, I know)

Daylight only comes at two

Falling in the afternoon

Sunshine breaks for you, it's true, it's true, it's true

Daylight only comes at you

I guess that I'm addicted to you

I'm always chasing you, I'm always chasing you

If you're telling me what I'm telling you

Then you gotta take me home

There's part of me, and a part of you

That could never leave it alone

If you're telling me what I'm telling you

Then you gotta take me home

There's part of me, and a part of you

That could never leave it alone

Daylight only comes at two

I guess that I'm addicted to you

I'm always chasing you, I'm always chasing you
