Stranger

Par Ruth Radelet

Album : Stranger

Velvet night, it's dark and lonely

City lights are the only thing inside

You're the only thing that's right

Fast cars and your driver make me feel so alive

I turn the wheel, I made this deal, don't take the deal

Baby, I'm so far away from home

Baby, you could bury me in stone

I could never hold you in my hands

I know I'm a stranger in your land

Silver moon, chase tomorrow

Nothing left you can borrow

Don't be proud, hide your face behind the clouds

Angel wings are broken, you have not truly spoken

To the ones whose pointed guns have set the sun

Baby, I'm so far away from home

Baby, you could bury me in stone

I could never hold you in my hands

I know I'm a stranger in your land

Baby, I'm so far away from home

Baby, you could bury me in stone

I could never hold you in my hands

I know I'm a stranger in your land
