Put Your Mouth Where The Money Is

Par Sailor

Album : Girls Girls Girls: The Very Best Of Sailor

Marsh-Serpell

The Santa Rosa fair is in, with that 'Iron Man McGinn

Who's gonna challenge the two

The man you can't knock down

But Danny Becker's gonna try

For his needs are kind of high

So he's gonna take on the 'Iron Man' tonight

(Chorus):

Come and get your money, it's a hundred dollars a round

Put your mouth where the money is tonight

Lots and lots of money if you knock the champion down

Put your mouth where the money is tonight

Weighing in at Smokey Joe's, where the conversation's slow

There is 'Iron Man' McGinn

He's always odds on to win

He got his name in Idaho

Where upon a single blow

He knocked the door off the Maled city jail

(Repeat chorus)

Oh, put your mouth where the money is (Repeat 3x)

Doo doo doo doo doo doo doo doo doo

But Danny Becker's little friend, she knew how the fight would end

So she handicapped McGinn

By slipping 'Mickey's' in his gin

And so the might of 'Iron Man'

Will rust away like iron can

For Danny Becker's the winner here tonight

(Repeat chorus)

Yeah!
