You Deserve Better

Par Sarey Savy

Album : Szns Of Love

You know that you deserve better

No
Oh
Cause you deserve, you deserve
Uh

I know it's hard
Aww yeah, aww yeah
You're making excuses for the ways he's done you wrong
You're falling apart
I know, I see
As every piece of you, It falls onto the ground

And you say

Keep holding on, keep holding on yeah

Keep holding on, keep holding on yeah

Keep holding on, wipe those tears away

Your friends say

You will get through, you will get through this

You will get through, you will get through all this

You will get through, you will get through all this

But I say

Why do you keep letting him in?

You know it's gonna hurt again

You know that you deserve better

And I know that you deserve better

Why do you keep on loving him?

When maybe he don't love you back?

You know that you deserve better

And I know that you deserve better

(You know that you deserve better)

(And I know that you deserve better)

(Better)

(Be-be-better)

(Be-be-better)

(Better)

(You know that you deserve better)

(And I know that you deserve better)

(Better)

(Be-be-better)

(Be-be-better)

(Better)

Cryin to sleep, mmm

(Cryin', cryin', cryin', cryin')

Wishin and hopin that someone could hold you tight

In too deep

Feelin like no understands just how you feel

And you say

Keep holding on, keep holding on yeah

Keep holding on, keep holding on yeah

Keep holding on, wipe those tears away

Your friends say

You will get through, you will get through this

You will get through, you will get through all this

You will get through, you will get through all this

But I say

Why do you keep letting him in?

You know it's gonna hurt again

You know that you deserve better

And I know that you deserve better

Why do you keep on loving him?

When maybe he don't love you back?

You know that you deserve better

And I know that you deserve better

You deserve the world and everything up in it

I'm sorry for the guy that fucked up everything in it

Oh

Oh

You deserve the world and everything up in it

I'm sorry for the guy that fucked up everything in it

Oh

Oh
