Release My Soul

Par Sawano Hiroyuki

Album : Guilty Crown Original Soundtrack

Oh, take a look in the mirror, you look so sad

It's so cold, like that winter market we used to go

I don't cry anymore, but I feel so hurt

So I don't need you, too close to me

And you don't hear me, here, so he said

"I don't know why things have changed since yesterday"

This could be love again

All I need is you

Come back, I'm waiting anytime the heavy rains come

Still I miss days with you

I can't look into your face

Oh, feeling blue and looking back again

Please, come back to me

Oh, take a look in the mirror, you look so sad

It's so cold, like that winter market we used to go

I don't cry anymore, but I feel so hurt

So I don't need you, too close to me

And you don't hear me, here, so he said

"I don't know why things have changed since yesterday"

This could be love again

All I need is you

Come back, I'm waiting anytime the heavy rains come

Still I miss days with you

I can't look into your face

Oh, feeling blue and looking back again

Please, come back to me

To stay with you always

You're the world to me, and dreaming on

So you can take my sword for you

Oh, how do you feel so fine?

You're the world to me, and dream on

You stole my heart so long ago

Oh, I release my soul, so you feel my song
