What's the Difference

Par Scott Mckenzie

Album : The Very Best Of Scott McKenzie

Hey, friend, wake up, I'm throwin' rocks at your window pane

Get out of bed, I got somethin' to say

Pack up a toothbrush, sneak down your stairway

You got no reason you should stay.

Hey, what's the difference if we don't come back?

Who's gonna miss us in a year or so?

Nobody knows us for the things we've been thinkin'

So what's the difference if we go?

Hey, friend, wake up, I'm throwin' rocks at your window pane

Don't wake your friends, they'll probably start to cry

You leave behind all the dreams they have planned for you

Don't worry, friends, they'll know why.

What's the difference if we don't come back?

Who's gonna miss us in a year or so?

Nobody knows us for the things we've been thinkin'

So what's the difference if we go?

What's the difference if we go?

What's the difference if we go?
