Over Now (feat. Opposite the Other)

Par Seven Lions & Above & beyond

Album : Festival Music 2024 | Tomorrowland, Ultra, EDC

Tear me up

If you want to know who I am

When my eyes don't see

Will you lift my head

Light it up

I want you to know who I am

When the world won't turn

Will you still be scared

The rain will hide the morning light

But dawn will break the dark

Just tell me it's over now

It's already over now

An army of a hundred miles

Will only fall apart

Just tell me it's over now

It's already over now

The rain will hide the morning light

But dawn will break the dark

Just tell me it's over now

It's already over now

An army of a hundred miles

Will only fall apart

Just tell me it's over now

It's already over now
