Inside (Explicit Album Version)

Par Sevendust

Album : Chapter VII: Hope & Sorrow

Pleased to meet the mother fucker
With the first slug. Expect the best,
But you see the glass as half empty!
Your looking for a sacrificial lamb.

(I know your secrets!)

Try not to miss the warnings,

You know you have to own up

For yourself this time, the answers inside.

Karma has come to take a payment
From your rest now. Your second guessing
Has you beaten down, its all empty.
The misery that company brought to you.

(I still fucking hate it!)

Try not to miss the warnings,

You know you have to own up

For yourself this time, the answers inside.

Your scared of the change that's coming.

You know you better hold onto yourself this time,

The answers on the inside.

(Here comes the pay back!)

You think you know it all, but its my

Turn to tell you what i see.

(I know your secrets!)

Try not to miss the warnings,

You know you have to own up for yourself

this time, the answers one the inside.

Your scared of the change that's coming.

You know you better hold onto yourself

This time, the answers on the inside.
