Invitations

Par Shakatak

Album : Live In Japan PT-SHM 1

With a feeling smart below the lazy eyes

And the faces not attempting to disguise

It's an open invitation showing all the signs

Some to my surprise

And the fingers touch her hand below the lace

She said just a little time another place

He accepts her invitations

Wanna spend some time

Written on her face

That's the only thing goes thinkin' through his head

With the glossy invitation he misread

And you'd think he couldn't fail to

Read between the line

Plays the fool instead
