Without You

Par Shane & The Saints

Album : -

The sky turned black the day you left

Shades of grey were leapin out in from the west

She told me angels fly away we'll meet again someday

I am lonesome without you

I am so lonesome without you my baby doll

I am lonesome without you

She told me angels fly away, we'll meet again someday

I am lonesome without you, without you

Now I tried to hide my pain, yet I'm walking in the rain

I lost my light to look in darkness, I'm searching anyway

I pray to Jesus and I shake I'm a sinner not a saint

This year alone showed me love to find faith

I'm so lonesome without you, my baby doll

I am lonesome without you

She told me angels fly away, we'll meet again someday

I am lonesome without you

Without you

Without you

I am so lonesome without you, my baby doll

I am lonesome without you

She told me angels fly away, we will meet again someday

I am lonesome without you

Without you

Without you
