Life's a Mess

Par Siichaq

Album : CATCHER

I live entirely in my own head

In the comfort of my own mind

I can hide from the world

I can't have both feet in my real life

I have to be perfect

I can't bear to be seen

As anything less

I don't want to be human

Life is a mess

Have to be perfect

I have to be

Perfect

Counting down the seconds till I fall asleep

I can be anyone in my dreams

When I wake up I am just a girl

Another day endured in this cruel world

I have to be perfect

I can't bear to be seen

As anything less

I don't want to be human

Life is a mess

Have to be perfect

I have to be

Perfect
