Swept Away

Par Silent Theory

Album : Theoretically Speaking III

I didn't try

As hard as I witnessed you do

(You do)

My feet are scarred

From the path I followed you through

(You through)

I won't forget what I took along the way

Please forgive me

It wasn't long before I got tossed away

Please don't forget me

This is the last lie

I can see through

But it's not enough

To get me away from you

This is the last time

I'll believe you

Then I'll watch you break

Like a tidal wave

(Break like a tidal wave)

I don't know what to say

I got swept away

(Break like a tidal wave)

It's not enough

I have to replay your mistakes

Please don't forget me

I don't belong

It's safe to say I'm to blame

Please forgive me

This is the last lie

I can see through

But it's not enough

To get me away from you

This is the last time

I'll believe you

Then I'll watch you break

Like a tidal wave

(Break like a tidal wave)

I don't have much to say

I got swept away

Please forgive me

I don't have much to say

I got swept away

Please forgive me

This is the last lie

I can see through

But it's not enough

To get me away from you

This is the last time

I'll believe you

Then I'll watch you break

Like a tidal wave

I got swept away

Broke like a tidal wave
