Sea of Wonder

Par Silent Winter

Album : The War Is Here

Let me hear the raging sea

Calling out to me

And my soul begins to scream

In my lonely dreams

Through the gates of hell and back,

We will clear the way,

Skies on fire, turning black,

Come forth is judgement day.

Ride the storms

And sail your shadows

Carry on

The demons of your soul

In a sea of wonders

Drown away your dreams

And theres no tommorow

If you dont believe

In a sea of wonders

Find your golden fleece

Let the light inside you

And set your spirite free

I can hear the sirens cry

Deep inside my soul

And my spirit bound in chains

This struggle leaves me cold

Marching in the dark

Stronger than a beast

While the never ending waves

Blazing on the wind

Ride the storms

And sail your shadows

Carry on

The demons of your soul

In a sea of wonders

Drown away your dreams

And theres no tommorow

If you dont believe

In a sea of wonders

Find your golden fleece

Let the light inside you

And set your spirite free
