Incomplete

Par Sisqo

Album : unknown title

Ooh-oo-hoo

Woo

Oh, yeah-yeah

Listen

Bright lights and fancy restaurants

Everything in this world that a man could want

Got a bank account bigger than the law should allow

Still I'm lonely now

Pretty faces from the covers of the magazines

From their covers to my covers want to lay with me

Fame and fortune still can't find

Just a grown man runnin' out of time

Even though it seems I have everything

I don't want to be a lonely fool

All of the women

All the expensive cars

All of the money don't amount to you

So I can make believe I have everything

But I can't pretend that I don't see

That without you girl my life is incomplete

Said, without you girl

Listen

Your perfume, your sexy lingerie

Girl, I remember it just like it was on yesterday

A Thursday you told me you had fallen in love

I wasn't sure that I was

It's been a year, winter, summer, spring and fall

But being without you just ain't livin', ain't livin' at all

If I could travel back in time

I'd relive the days you were mine

Even though it seems I have everything

I don't want to be a lonely fool

All of the women

All the expensive cars

All of the money don't amount to you

I can make believe I have everything

But I can't pretend that I don't see

That without you girl my life is incomplete

Oh yeah, that without you girl

I just can't help lovin' you

But I loved you much too late

I'd give anything

And everything

To hear you say

That you'll stay

Even though it seems I have everything

I don't want to be a lonely fool (Yeah, yeah)

All of the women (All of the women)

All the expensive cars (All of the money)

All of the money don't amount to you (You can have it all)

I can make believe I have everything (Just give me my baby)

But I can't pretend that I don't see (Yeah, yeah)

That without you girl my life is incomplete

Even though it seems I have everything (Even though it seems)

I don't want to be a lonely fool (Yeah, I got everything)

All of the women (I don't have you)

All the expensive cars (I don't have you)

All of the money don't amount to you (It makes me wanna cry, baby)

I can make believe I have everything (Oh)

But I can't pretend that I don't see (Yeah-yeah)

That without you girl my life is incomplete

Without you girl

Without you girl my life

Without you girl my life, my life is incomplete

Without you girl you girl my life is incomplete

Oh, yeah

My life is incomplete

Oh, yeah, yeah
