It's A New Day

Par Skull Snaps

Album : Metal Samples

Well, well

Now, now, now, now, now

Hey, what's that you say?

Well, gonna be a new day

It's a new day, and a better day's coming

Well, now who you gonna trust?

In God we trust

Yeah

Don't make a fuss

Woah, nah nah

Just step, to the back of the bus

It's not right to get uptight

To fold your hands and cry

Stand up and fight

With all of your might

You can make it if you try

Hey, what's that you say?

It's a new day, and a better day's comin'

In God we trust, going to make a fuss

Just strut, to the back of the bus

Well there's freedom for all

You've heard the call for men like you and me

And in the swing, and do your thing so others can be free

Let's make a stand and show your hand

There's a place for you in line

Be black and blue

Because we need you

And the power of your mind

What you say?

Hey, what's that you say?

It's a new dang day

It's a new day, and a better day's comin'

Who you gonna trust?

In God we trust, don't make a fuss

What you gonna do?

Just step, to the back of the bus

Well, nah, nah

Well get up, thank, now now

Just throw your hands now now

Stand up and fight, yeah, yeah, yeah

Just step, to the back of the bus

Just step, to the back of the bus

Let me hear you say "freedom"

Well don't care if you didn't want no freedom at all, yeah, yeah

Freedom for all yeah, yeah

Don't care if you're white, blue,

green, black, or purple, yes y'all Ah, yeah

Make a fuss, gonna change the back of-a this bus

Aw, yeah

Everybody gotta be free, free, free, free, free, yeah, yeah

Gotta keep the freedom for you and me

Well, yeah

Well, you gonna step to the back of the bus no more, no more, no
