Cybertrolls

Par Sovengar

Album : Cybertrolls

Creepin' in the shadows, a ghost in the net,
Cybertroll on the prowl, ready to upset,
He's a serial hater, top of his game,
Critiques every post, every tweet, just the same.

Hidin' behind a nickname, faceless in the dark,
throwing poison words, leaving a toxic mark,
Everything's beneath him, nothing's ever right,
He fires off his comments, disappearing in the night.

Growls at the net!

The Cybertroll!

The Cyber troll!

Cyber trolls in the net, in toxic embrace

Invincible hunter, marking your trace.

In the darkness of bits, its malice doesn't regress.

Words are its weapons, its laughter so cruel

The Cyber troll!

Grows at the net!

The Cyber troll!

The Cyber troll!

In a digital world,

you are the king and the law...

But your fall is coming,

reality will explode

The Cyber troll!

The Cyber troll!

But the light of algorithms will unveil the truth,

Behind the Cyber troll, a real being, forsooth.

We'll face its venom with reality's blade,

The digital myth fades, truth is displayed.
