Babylon (feat. Junior Reid & Dead Prez)

Par Stephen Marley

Album : Revelation Pt. II - The Fruit Of Life

Babylon

Babylon

Look what they doing, despicable, inhuman

And got the nerve to say that I'm three fifths of a human

Babylon is in ruins, inhabited by a beast

A blood sucker, vampire to say the least

Look at the way they gnashing their teeth as they feast

Fighting to get a piece, something like ancient Greece

Permanent Halloween, trick or treat

We walking like zombies out in these streets

Shackled our hands and feet

What you see?

What you see?

Down there in Babylon

Where transgression increases

There ain't no new love

Hopeless are the days

Whole life's dead far right

From their wicked life

Smiles upon their faces

Evil in their hearts

Oh, why?

Oh, why?

Oh, why?

Oh, why?

Oh, why?

Oh, why?

Oh, why?

Oh, why?

Babylon

Babylon

Babylon

Babylon

Babylon, I know below your kingdom will fall down

I will never give you the crown

Babylon, I know below your kingdom will fall down

I'm gonna try if it would, Rasta, down

Babylon, I know below your kingdom will fall down

Yeah

Rasta no afraid, no afraid

Babylon is a devil in a blue dress, Satan in a suit and tie

Oppression is freedom, heaven is hell and the truth is a lie

They murder the youth, the police don't shoot in the sky

It's a war zone, you do what you gotta do to survive

You can shoot it or ride, life is hustle and stall

This is capitalism, religion, money is God

America eats the young like cannibal breakfast

Wall Street is swarming with Hannibal Lecters

Crooked elections, politricks are the shystem

Legal lynchings, modern day crucifixions

Slaves to the current conditions that we live in

More faith in the reverends than making our own heaven

It's foul how the youth glued to the television

They heard of Assata, but Twitter following parents looting

It's only right we wanna be more than poor and righteous

But even the rich today can't ignore the crisis in Babylon

Babylon

Babylon

Babylon

Babylon

Babylon

Oh, why?

Oh, why?

Oh, why?

Oh, why?

Oh, why?

Oh, why?

Oh, why?

Oh, why?

Oh, why?

Babylon, I know below your kingdom will fall down

Yeah

Rasta no afraid, no afraid

And so, we've come to this time of all of Babylon has been prophesied

Just like the roof below it will shatter before these words pass away

As we speak today, Babylon persists to fall
