Suite Madame Blue

Par Styx

Album : Styx: The Singles Collection

Time after time

I sit and I wait for your call

I know I'm a fool

But what can I say?

Whatever the price I'll pay

For you, Madame Blue

Once long ago

A word from your lips and the world turned around

But somehow you've changed

You're so far away

I long for the past and dream of the days

With you, Madame Blue

Suite Madame Blue

Gaze in your looking-glass

You're not a child anymore

Suite Madame Blue

The future is all but past

Dressed in your jewels, you made your own rules

You conquered the world and more

Heaven's door

America, America, America, America

America, America, America, America

America, America, America, America

Red white and blue

Gaze in your looking-glass

You're not a child anymore

Red, white, and blue

The future is all but past

So lift up your heart

Make a new start

And lead us away from here
