Wild Palms

Par Sun Airway

Album : Wild Palms

Just give me your time

I don't want your trouble or your troubled mind

String me up from your unstrung eyes

Then fall from my atlas, good graces

Crusoe-ing through the vines someplace

You're something to find

Always something to find

Breathless in the daylight

Reckless as the day long

I dagger through the deep blue

Just to reach your wild palms

Mostly i just feel lost

When you're ghostly in the pale dawn

I dagger through the deep blue

Just to reach your wild palms

Just give me your time

I don't want your trouble or your troubled mind

In morning pitch drift to my side

Then slip into rivers considered

Once lost and now divine delivered

Something to find

You're always something to find

Breathless in the daylight

Reckless as the day long

I dagger through the deep blue

Just to reach your wild palms

Mostly i just feel lost

When you're ghostly in the pale dawn

Just to reach your wild palms
