Lonely Lights

Par Tarnation

Album : Rough Trade Shops: Country 1

Three, four

There she goes, she's a lonely one

She wears a strange painted on smile

She's caught in the middle

After waiting for a long, long while

There she sits half in the shade

She won't look at any trouble made by that man

He's the only trouble she understands

Dancing where the lonely lights are dim

Holding on to just a memory of him

I tell myself there's no one to blame

Is it fate? Why we feel the same

Caught in the middle after waiting for a long, long while

Dancing where the lonely lights are dim

Holding on to just a memory of him

Dancing where the lonely lights are dim

Holding on to just a memory of him
