Tears In The Morning

Par The Beach Boys

Album : Sunflower

Tears (I got tears I got tears)

In the morning (in the mornin')

They ain't gonna tell me what to do

No no those tears (I got tears I got tears)

I know they're just a warnin' (are a warnin')

Reminding me I'm missing you

So you moved out up to Europe

You packed your warmth and you took your soul

Well I hope you do what you're damn sure of

A lonely bed here takes on the cold

Lose a wife change my life we're not together

A canceled future well it's hard on me

Gone you're gone are you gone forever

Hope you love the baby I'm never gonna see

And I've got tears (I've got tears I've got tears)

In the morning (in the mornin')

They ain't gonna tell me what to do

No no those tears (tears I got tears I got tears)

I know they're just a warnin' (are a warnin')

Reminding me I'm missing you

Well you know I lit a candle

It's in my heart now where it glows

Day and night feel my light it's gonna stand till

My heart believes in what you chose

I won't let nobody

Carry this load for me

Guess I keep a hold on my sorrow

I've got to feel now all that you see

And I've got tears (I got tears I got tears)

In the morning (in the mornin')

They ain't gonna tell me what to do

No no those tears (I got tears I got tears)

I know they're just my warnin' (are a warnin')

Reminding me I'm missing you

I've still got tears (tears)

Tears (tears) in the mornin'

(I got tears in the morning I got tears)

They ain't gonna tell me what to do

No no those tears (I got tears I got tears)

I know they're just my warnin' (I got tears)

Reminding me I'm missing you

I'm missing you
