Must I Always Remember

Par The Box

Album : The Box - The Best Of The Box

And its early, I'm standing in the chill,
Right across, There's a lady who waits.
I shiver, hoping it won't be long.
There's a train, it is heading my way,
And I don't know where I'm going.

Must I always remember

I can't keep looking back?

Must they always remind me

The goal is hard to reach?

Very pretty, the country goes by.
Very far, from where I used to be.
I don't feel like dreaming anymore.
I contain my emotions

And I think I understand...

Must I always remember

I can't keep looking back?

Must they always remind me

The goal is hard to reach?

Very soon, we will enter a city.

All the same as where I came from

And I'll like it just the same...

Must I always remember

I can't keep looking back?

Must they always remind me

The goal is hard to reach?
