Since You're Gone

Par The Cars

Album : The Elektra Years 1978-1987

Since you're gone

The nights are gettin' strange

Since you're gone

Well, nothings makin' any sense

Since you're gone

I stumbled in the shade

Since you're gone

Everything's in perfect tense, well

I can't help it

When you fall apart

And I can't help it

Guess you better start

That is forgettin' about you

(Since you're gone)

Nights are gettin' strange

(Since you're gone)

Throwin' it all away

(Since you're gone)

The nights are gettin' strange

(Since you're gone)

Throwin' it all away

I can't help it

Everything's a mess

I can't help it

You're so treacherous

When it comes to tenderness

(Since you're gone)

I can't help it

Everything's a mess

I can't help it

You're so treacherous

Oh, where's that tenderness?

(Since you're gone)

Since you're gone I missed the peak sensation

(Since you're gone)

Since you're gone I took the big vacation

(Since you're gone)

Well, never feel sedate

(Since you're gone)

Well, the moonlight ain't so great

(Since you're gone)

Since you're gone

(Since you're gone)

Well, I've thrown it all away

(Since you're gone)

When the night

(Since you're gone)

Strange

I've thrown it all away

(Since you're gone)

Well, since you're gone

I've thrown it all away

(Since you're gone)

Since you're gone

(Since you're gone)

Well, I've thrown it all away
