Big Green Eyes

Par The Dangerous Summer

Album : Coming Home (Deluxe)

I'd give up everything I own

Just to be the one who takes you home

There's no more shine in rock and roll

If I can't be the hand you hold

Give me fire

You give me all of my strength

I'm singing 'cause I found no better way

I'm up all night, a million miles away

But I don't think my heart can stand the pain

Your big green eyes

Just one more kiss before I go

I'll be back once I change the world

You give me fire

You give me all of my strength

I'm singing 'cause I found no better way

I'm up all night, a million miles away

But I don't think my heart can stand the pain

Your big green eyes

I could stare for days

But I'd get lost in all the things that I can't change

Gonna make it whole, gonna make it right

I've been facing the wrong direction

I can't wait til I get home to be with you again

Your big green eyes

Your big green eyes

Your big green eyes

Your big green eyes
