Without You

Par The Doobie Brothers

Album : 100 Hits - Rock (CD 1/5)

I get a feelin', lost without you baby

Livin' alone is drivin' me crazy

Don't you know

I got nowhere to go

You should be the one that's hurtin'

You got everything you need

Back in the days when love was so easy

I was fancy free and laughin' with no reason

Things have changed

Your touch has grown strange

I can't help myself

I know that you have left me dyin' here

Baby, baby

I can't live without you

Baby, baby

I can't live without you no more

Baby, baby

I can't live without you

I feel you know it, huh

Oh, baby, now I'm lost without my baby

Oh, baby, baby, babe, don't you hear right now
