Blackboard

Par The F16s

Album : Nobody's Gonna Wait

Two say the same thing looking for a wonder jump into the river but the river wouldn't carry me home,

Wouldn't carry me home.

We could start all over

clean it like a blackboard

look into the mirror but the mirror wasn't looking at you,

It wasn't looking at you.

Cause when i look into the moon

while i be looking at you, won't you clean me like a blackboard.

Cause when i look into the moon

while i be looking at you,

won't you clean me like a blackboard.

Save for the liars

its not like I'm the weaker link

if we could never find out

no one would've needed to know,

Would've needed to know.

We could start all over

look into the mirror but the mirror wasn't looking at you,

It wasn't looking at you.

Cause when i look into the moon

while i be looking at you,

won't you clean me like a blackboard.

Cause when i look into the moon

while i be looking at you,

won't you clean me like a blackboard.

Save for the liars

no one would've needed to know,

Would've needed to know.

Ten hours tomorrow ten hours to beg and borrow think i finally found something but everything is slowing me down.

Hey there you've been thinking bout weekends by the sea but I'm leaving never coming back see how i clean my slate again.

i clean my slate again.

No need to keep in touch i'm drifting further from your love leave me, no going back to the start

when i clean my slate again.

i clean my slate again

when i clean my slate again.

Cause when i look into the moon

while i be looking at you

won't you clean me like a blackboard.
