The Lost Explorer

Par The High Dials

Album : War of the Wakening Phantoms

Love, love is all around you

Though, though we never found you

I can't do a thing

There is no help I can bring

So I string these words

As a lifeline and a lure

Ice, older than the seas, dear

Sings, whispers in your frozen ear

I can't be there now

As comfort or as shelter

So I made these words

In the hopes you will remember

I can't be there now

As comfort or as shelter

So I made these words

In the hopes you will remember

If no one's coming

When will you save yourself?

If no one's coming

When will you save yourself?

If no one's coming

When will you save yourself?

If no one's coming

When will you?
