Gemini

Par The Hoops

Album : Gemini

Can you keep your arms close to mine, together

I never know, run around

Where are you?

Keep you

From becoming it, together

And blow one last dance with you

And even in my time I'm sure that I'm back living on my own

On my own

Keep secrets hidden far from me

Skin my hand

Sink into my mouth

Give me comfort when I'm unwell

When it's all mellow

And even in my time I'm sure that I'm back living on my own

On my own

I go open to you//

No, I never knew too

Cause, I'm emerging too

I go over to your mind

Happens or asking all of the time

What she does to her mind

It says she likes me unkind

And everything is a lie

Stumble, back over or Texas

And all the memories of me

She - in my arms - starts to bleed

I never wanted to be

What you cannot be
