Pure

Par The Lightning Seeds

Album : The Lightning Seeds - Best Of

Night time slows

Raindrops splash rainbows

Perhaps someone you know

Could sparkle and shine

As daydreams slide

The colour from shadow

Picture the moonglow

That dazzles my eyes

And I love you

Just lying smiling in the dark

Shooting stars around your heart

Dreams come bouncing in your head

Pure and simple every time

Now you're crying in your sleep

I wish you'd never learned to weep

Don't sell the dreams you should be keeping

Pure and simple every time

Dream of sights

Of sleigh rides in seasons

Where feelings not reasons

Can make you decide

As leaves pour down

Splash Autumn on gardens

As colder nights harden

Their moonlit delights

And I love you

Just lying smiling in the dark

Shooting stars around your heart

Dreams come bouncing in your head

Pure and simple every time

Now you're crying in your sleep

I wish you'd never learned to weep

Don't sell the dreams you should be keeping

Pure and simple every time

Look at me with starry eyes

Push me up to starry skies

There's stardust in my head

Pure and simple every time

Fresh and deep as oceans new

Shiver at the sight of you

I'll sing a softer tune

Pure and simple over you

If love's the truth then look no lies

And let me swim around your eyes

I've found the place I'll never leave

Shut my mouth and just believe

Love is the truth I realise

Not a stream of pretty lies

To use us up

And waste our time

Lying smiling in the dark

Shooting stars around your heart

Dreams come bouncing in your head

Pure and simple every time

Now you're crying in your sleep

I wish you'd never learned to weep

Don't sell the dreams you should be keeping

Pure and simple every time

Look at me with starry eyes

Push me up to starry skies

There's stardust in my head

Pure and simple every time

I'll sing a softer tune

Pure and simple over you

Pure and simple just for you
